The University of Cologne is one of the largest and most research-intensive universities in Germany, offering a wide range of subjects. With its six faculties and its interfaculty centres, it offers a broad spectrum of scientific disciplines and internationally outstanding profile areas, supported by the administration with its services.

The position is based in the Department of Economics within the Faculty of Management, Economics and Social Sciences, which is consistently ranked among the top schools in research and teaching. The candidate will be part of the ERC-funded research group of Professor Sebastian Siegloch. Collaboration with other members of the DFG-funded Cluster of Excellence „ECONtribute: Markets & Public Policy“, the Center for Marcoeconomic Research (CMR) and the Department of Economics is welcome.

YOUR TASKS

- » The successful candidate will be expected to contribute to research of the Department, in particular within the ERC-funded project "Housing, Inequality and Public Policies". There is no teaching obligation.

YOUR PROFILE

- » You hold a PhD in economics or are close to completing your PhD.
- » We are seeking a talented applied economist at an early career stage, working in the fields of public, labor and/or urban economics with an interest in housing markets.

WE OFFER YOU

- » A diverse and fair working environment
- » Support in reconciling work and family life
- » Flexible working time models, full-time positions suitable for job sharing
- » Extensive advanced training opportunities
- » Occupational health management offers
- » Local transport ticket at a discount for UoC employees

The position is available immediately, no later than September 2023 on a full-time basis (39,83 hours per week). The length of the contract is 24 months. If the applicant meets the relevant wage requirements and personal qualifications, the salary is based on up to the remuneration group 14 TV-L of the pay scale for the German public sector.

The University of Cologne is committed to equal opportunities and diversity. Women are especially encouraged to apply and will be considered preferentially in accordance with the Equal Opportunities Act of North Rhine-Westphalia (Landesgleichstellungsgesetz – LGG NRW). We also expressly welcome applications from people with disabilities / special needs or of equal status.
